SCOTTIE

THE 1947

DEDIC

With deepest respect, the Class of 1947 dedicates its yearbook to Miss Loucks. Her wit and unique teaching methods have made her one of the most admired teachers of our school.

Receiving her B.S. degree at the University of Pittsburgh, she joined our faculty in 1924 as Latin instructor. Senior English teacher, class adviser, and yearbook counselor since 1936, Miss Loucks by her encouragement and advice has helped many a lagging student to achieve the goal of graduation.

We hope that her cheerful personality will be as inspirational to future students as it has been to us.

SCOTTDALE HIGH SCHOOL

THE SCOTTIE

MR. CLINTON M. PUFF
Superintendent of Schools

TO THE CLASS OF 1947

The years spent in school are years of growth and development. It is then that learning is easiest and most abundant. It is the time when character is established and attitudes are firmly fixed. The friendships formed in school are the most lasting of any in our lives. For these reasons, it is very important that young people go to school and that they make the most of the years spent there.

As we grow older we become more fully aware of the meaning and value of school and should try to impress this fact upon younger people. You, who are about to join that group of older people who appreciate what school means, have a responsibility of adding your voice and influence in behalf of more and better education for all young people. Let your own school experience be an example to others of the high value to be placed upon education.

This is my farewell advice to you. With it goes my very best wishes for long, happy, and useful lives.

MRS. ROBERT KILGORE

MR. EDGAR M. BYERS
High School Principal

TO THE CLASS OF 1947

You will approach this Commencement Day with many fond memories of the pleasant days in Scottdale High and with a deep appreciation of the many sacrifices that have made your education in the Scottdale High School possible.

MISS MARY NICKLOW

You are endowed with a good mind, with a sense of responsibility, and a willingness to learn, to reason and to solve your own problems; yet you will fail unless you take a wholesome interest in the human beings around you and the community in which you live.

SENIOR CLASS

Will we ever forget how important we felt when we entered Senior High as sophomores? Although confronted by confusing schedules, crowded halls, baffling new subjects, and strange teachers we were undaunted.

1945—Juniors! At last an opportunity to reveal our thus-far-hidden talents in acting. Grease paint and footlights! We could scarcely wait for tryouts.

September 1946! What a dizzy whirl! Football and basketball games, parties, dinners, proms! "Peace is wonderful!" At long last enough males to go around! Seems that the year was over before it had scarcely begun. That's one year we've never forgotten.

And now as the Class of 1947 leaves S. H. S.

JUNIOR CLASS

With keen anticipation, the class of "48" entered Senior High this year. We got off to a good start by electing our class officers, and Student Council members, two of whom were chosen to serve as officers.

A magazine-subscription drive added a substantial sum to our treasury. Other red-letter events on our class calendar included the selection of class rings, participation in the Bond Issue parade, the class play, and last but not least, the prom.

And now, juniors, get ready! Next year is our last and the most important of all!

SOPHOMORE CLASS

At last the great day arrived and we, the Class of "49," were dignified sophomores of Scottdale High.

All the teachers were very helpful in getting us acquainted with our new environment. We always hurried to room C for biology because that class was sixty minutes of work and fun. We thought that Mr. Copley, our teacher, was tops.

Seven sophomore boys played on the varsity football and basketball teams. Weren't we proud of them?

And so with pride in our school and confidence in ourselves we look forward to our last two years in Scottdale High.

Take school seriously

FRESHMAN CLASS

Instead of feeling like orphans crowded out of the high school building and forced to remain with the "young kids" across the street, this year's 149 ninth-graders were proud to be enrolled as the upper-classmen of the newly-organized Junior High School.

Members in Junior Red Cross, G.A.A., and the band, and enthusiastic support of the Junior High football and basketball teams are proof of the school spirit of the class of '50.

Officers for the year were: President, Jim Hunt; Vice-President, George Beck; Secretary, Janet McFadden; Treasurer, Bill Kelley.

MR. HAZEN

THE DIRECTOR

If you ever looked out of the window sixth period and saw a harassed looking man pulling his hair, distractedly blowing his whistle, gesturing frantically and shouting, you knew it was—yes—Mr. Hazen. Drilling band members in those intricate formations, conducting an orchestra, and giving individual music lessons to many students is a difficult job. But Mr. Hazen is well qualified, for the Scottie band is one of the best in the county.

THE BAND

Striking formations were featured by the Scottie band this year. Two of these intricate formations were the moving sail boat and the mill with its revolving water wheel.

Did you notice the majorettes' new uniforms? We thought those white jackets and knee socks were very attractive.

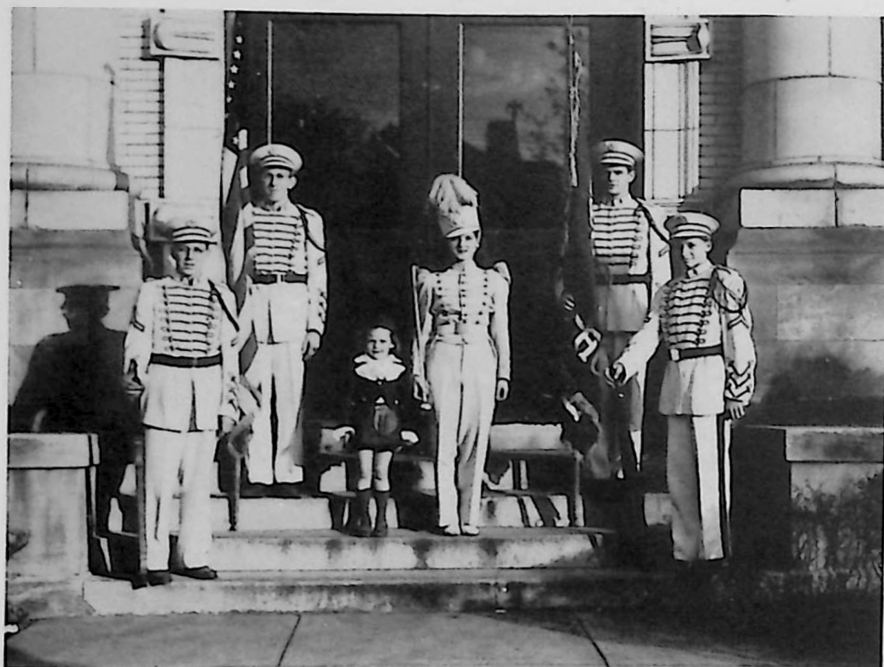

Seniors whom we lost at the end of the year by graduation were: Sally Mulroy, Grace Uber, Marjorie Walter, Mary Ann Kostelnock, Jean Percy, Genevieve Chiaramonte, Tom Loetzbie, Carl Davis, Steve Simon, and Bob Merritt.

THE DRUM MAJORETTE

Attractive drum majorette Joan McFadden and petite mascot Carol Heise led the band in fine style this year. The first year for both of them, Joan clad in her white and gold uniform and Carol in her bright plaid kilties and with Sandy on the leash, led the Scottie Music Makers up the field like veterans. Excellent performance, Joan and Carol!

THE CHORAL CLUB

The Scottdale High School Choral Club launched another successful year under the leadership of president, Steve Simon; vice-president, Tom Loetzbeier; secretary, Mary Ann Kostelnock; treasurer, Richard Harshman. On December 19, Mrs. Martz, music director, presented the talented group of high school choristers in the cantata, "Yuletide Memories," with the Junior High Chorus assisting.

Activities of this organization included participation in the Westmoreland County Chorus January 17, a concert before the Monday Music Club in April and the usual participation in the Commencement program. Parties furnished fun and, incidentally, cash to buy pins for our senior members.

What an exciting and memorable year!

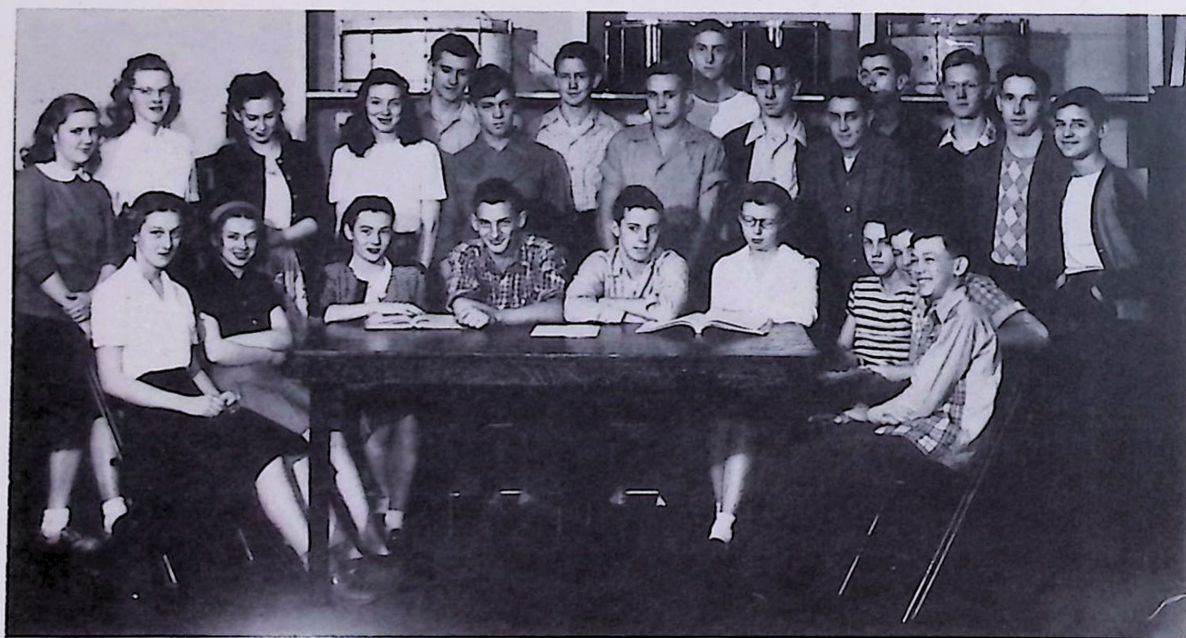

MRS. MARTZ

STUDENT COUNCIL

One of the outstanding organizations of the school is the Student Council, members of which are elected by the students. The Council planned assembly programs for the year and sponsored the Christmas program.

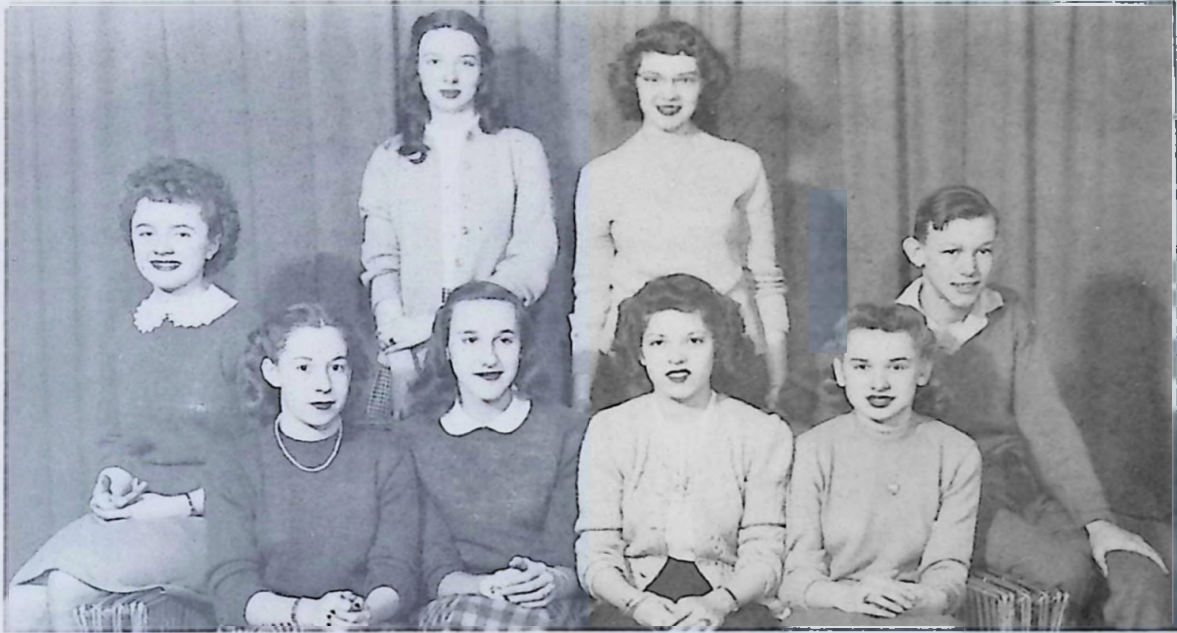

Under the capable leadership of Bill Slaughter, president; Jim Eicher, vice president; Pat Harding, secretary-treasurer; and Mr. Hollenbaugh, sponsor, the club proved its worth to the student body.

Seated: Florence Polakowski, Theresa Jackamonis, Patti Harding, Bill Slaughter, Jim Eicher, Sally Eckman, Malcolm Cummings, Bill Steele, Bill Owens.

HONOR SOCIETY

Seated: Lucille Keister, Erma-Rose Laughhead, Mary Ann Kostelnock, Genevieve Chiaramonte, Theresa Jackamonis, Bill Owens.

Standing: Jean Clelland, Grace Uber.

The Scottsdale High School Honor Society in 1946-1947 once again fulfilled its four-fold purpose of stressing the importance of scholarship, leadership, character, and service in our school.

Senior members elected to S.H.S.H.S. in their junior year are: Mary Ann Kostelnock, Genevieve Chiaramonte, and Theresa Jackamonis. First semester selections this year included Jean Clelland, Lucille Keister, Kathryn Kupczak, Erma Rose Laughhead, Grace Uber, and Bill Owens.

Since the Bond Issue was passed, we know that we shall soon have an auditorium and a gymnasium. That will make possible the affiliation of S.H.S.H.S. with the National Honor Society, a goal which has been desired since the organization of the local group.

THE SCOTTIE REVUE

Seated: Helen Hough, Patti Harding, Ruth March, Genevieve Chiaramonte, Peggy Ryan, Sally Mulroy, Margie Robertson, Theresa Jackamonis, Mary Ann Kostelnock.

Although the 1946-47 Scottie Revue staff was handicapped at the start by the loss of its able editor, Mal Barash, to Mercersburg, Peggy Ryan and Genevieve Chiaramonte, co-editors, with Mrs. Maloy as faculty adviser, produced a publication which broke all previous circulation records.

The Bond Issue special with prize-winning editorials, a Thanksgiving number featuring "For This We Give Thanks" articles, a super-special Christmas edition, and a senior number in May included highlights of the year's publications.

Scottie Revue again sponsored the Senior Popularity Poll and the Gridiron Queen Coronation.

Both faculty and students appreciate the Scottie Revue because of its contribution to school spirit and morale.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

Seated: Mary Ann Kostelnock, Grace Uber, Genevieve Chiaramonte, and Margery Bradley.

Standing: Dick Blackburn, Bob Merritt, Wanda Wisniewski, Jean Clelland, Tom Loetzbeier, and Jim Finnerty.

The incessant throbbing of mysterious drums was an appropriate prelude to the "whodunnit" mystery-thriller presented by the Senior Class in April at the Strand Theatre.

"Drums of Death" had the audience either rocking with laughter at the absurdities of the sheriff or petrified with horror as the blood-curdling drama unfolded. The strange trances of Celeste terrified the group of oddly contrasting people who arrived at the murky lagoon at midnight to solve the mystery of the deceased Mr. Bailey. Add to the desolate surroundings a real live ghost and a headless monster; the result is one of the most unusual and fascinating class plays ever produced by our high school students.

Our thanks to Miss Laughrey for the hours of patient coaching which made the presentation of this play possible.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

Standing: Miss Oma Stoner, Eugene Assey, Bernard Sikon, Regis Ulery, Jim Heise, Jim Eicher, Lois Tallentire.

The Class of 1948 presented "Wedding Spells," under the direction of Miss Oma Stoner, at the Strand Theater in March. An able cast well-coached gave an excellent performance of the entertaining comedy.

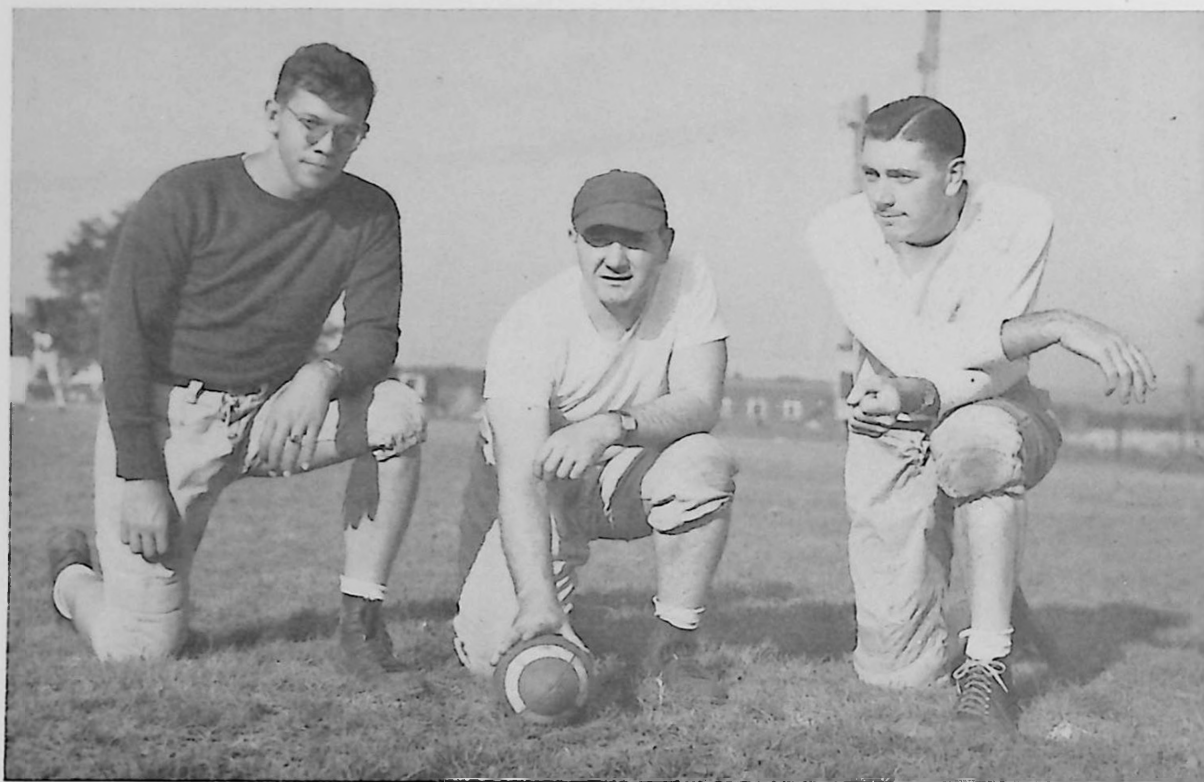

Steve Arlen, who couldn't remember which of four attractive girls he had married; Charles Cadney who proposed to all four within ten minutes, hoping to learn which one was Steve's wife; Mrs. Pettengill who was looking for a second husband; a clock that walked; an unfortunate kleptomaniac; a smooth butler; a policeman who always got his man; an irate southern gentleman; and a worried mother. These were the ingredients of the hilarious comedy, "Wedding Spells," which ended with every one all set to live happily ever after.

ATHLETICS

Left to Right: Walter Keibler, Ray Ronco, Gene Moffett.

This was Mr. Ronco's first year as football coach at Scottdale. He was assisted by Mr. Moffett and Mr. Keibler. Mr. Ronco is well-qualified for his coaching duties. Active in all sports in Uniontown where he attended high school, he also participated in college athletics both at Duquesne University and at Waynesburg College from which he graduated.

He has held coaching positions at Uniontown, Burgettstown, and Pitcairn. He served fourteen months in the Coast Artillery in World War II. We are confident his coaching methods will field a winning team in the near future and give Scottdale the football recognition it should have.

Second Row: Winston Dunlevy, Jim Dayoob, Bill Mitrisin, Dick Koval, Arnold Babura.

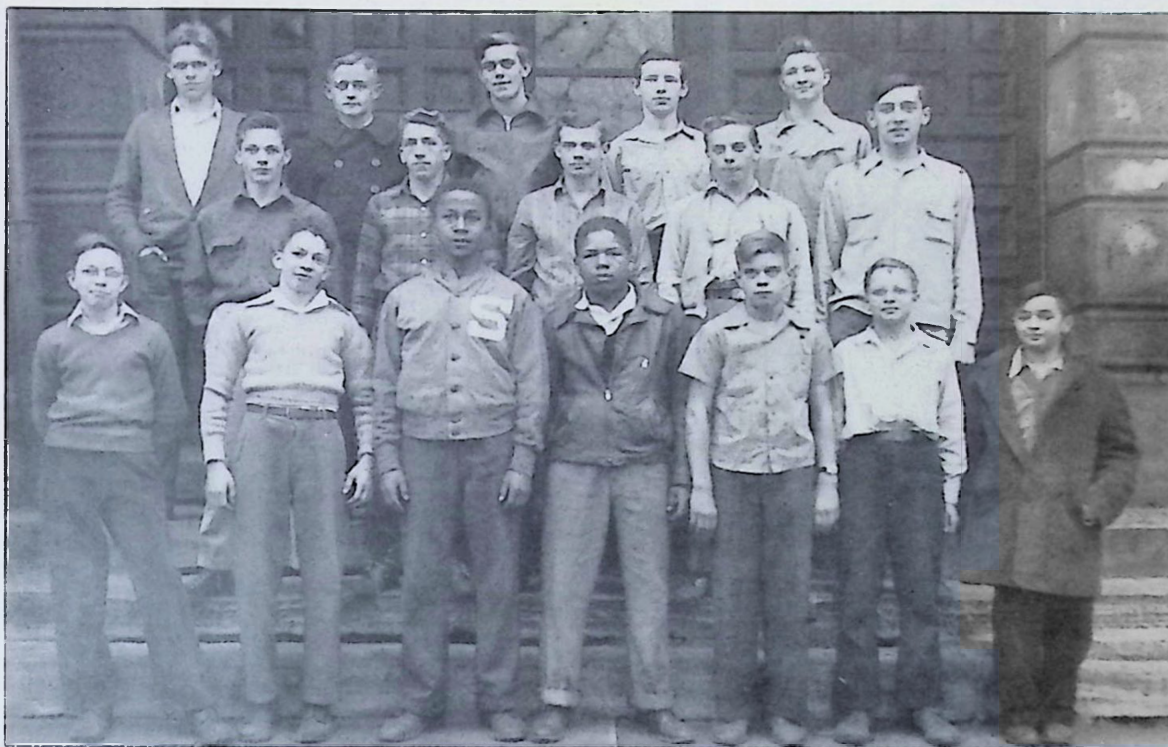

Third Row: Tom Kruckvich, John Nawrocki, Steve Simon, Harry Gula, J. C. George, Bill Shimshock, George Echard, George Renner.

The Scottdale Lettermen's Club got off to a flying start this year, electing Mr. Moffett as sponsor to take the place of Mr. Gross the previous mentor of the organization. Benefit games were planned to raise money for sweaters for lettermen. At the close of the gridiron season seniors played underclassmen who defeated them 7-6.

The second benefit was a basketball game between the House of David and the Daily Shavers, a team made up of faculty members, resulting in the score 64-46 in favor of the House of David.

The lettermen look forward to wearing the blue and white coat sweaters which they have earned by their athletic achievements, both in football and basketball.

JUNIOR VARSITY FOOTBALL

The Junior High football and basketball teams both made good showings under the able coaching of Mr. Robert White, who before coming to Scottdale three years ago, was coach at Perryopolis for five years. Backed by its own peppy cheerleaders and band, the student body gave enthusiastic support to the teams at all games.

BASKETBALL

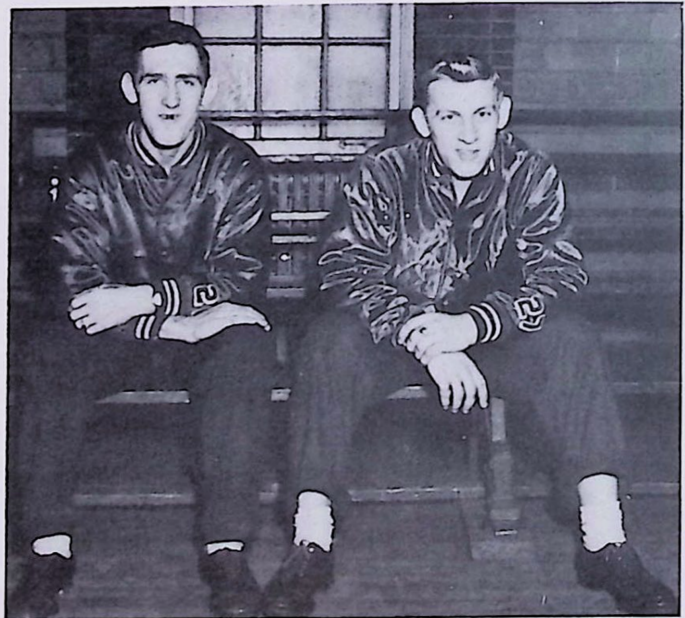

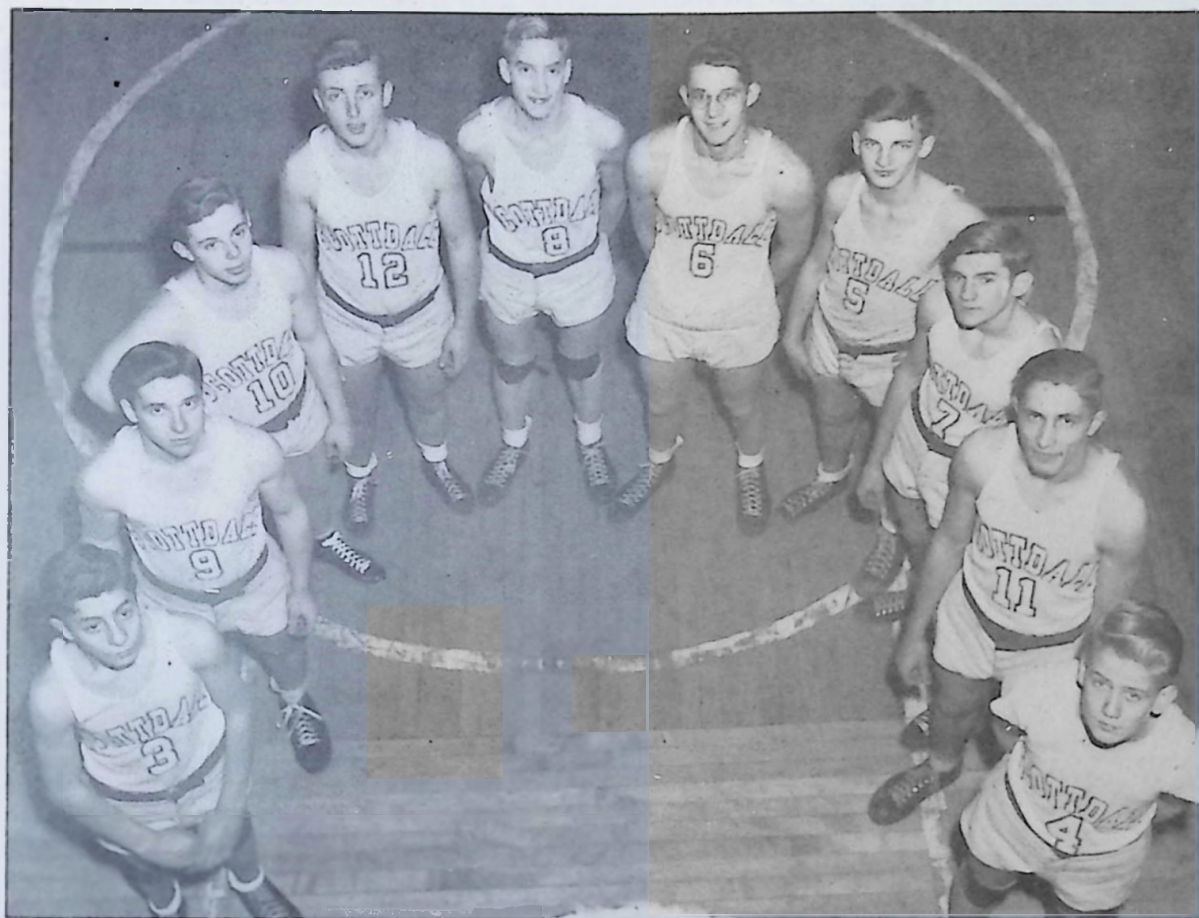

MR. MOFFETT
COACH

Mr. Moffett joined our faculty this year as head basketball coach and assistant football coach. He has had considerable coaching experiences since his graduation from Geneva College where he played football. At Monaca, his first position, he served as assistant football and head basketball coach and has held similar positions at Beaver, Munhall, and Sewickley.

The Scottie basketeers have had a good though not spectacular season. Although enjoying a winning practice game streak at the start of the season, they got off to a bad start in league competition. However, they concluded the season in fine form, and Coach Moffett and his players, many of whom will be back next year, are looking forward to an even better season next year.

BILL SLAUGHTER—Bill was pivot man on the Scottie five, and with his height he gave the Blue and White added advantage on the board. He was a good one-hand push shot and was a valuable man, giving spectators many thrills by his flashy plays.

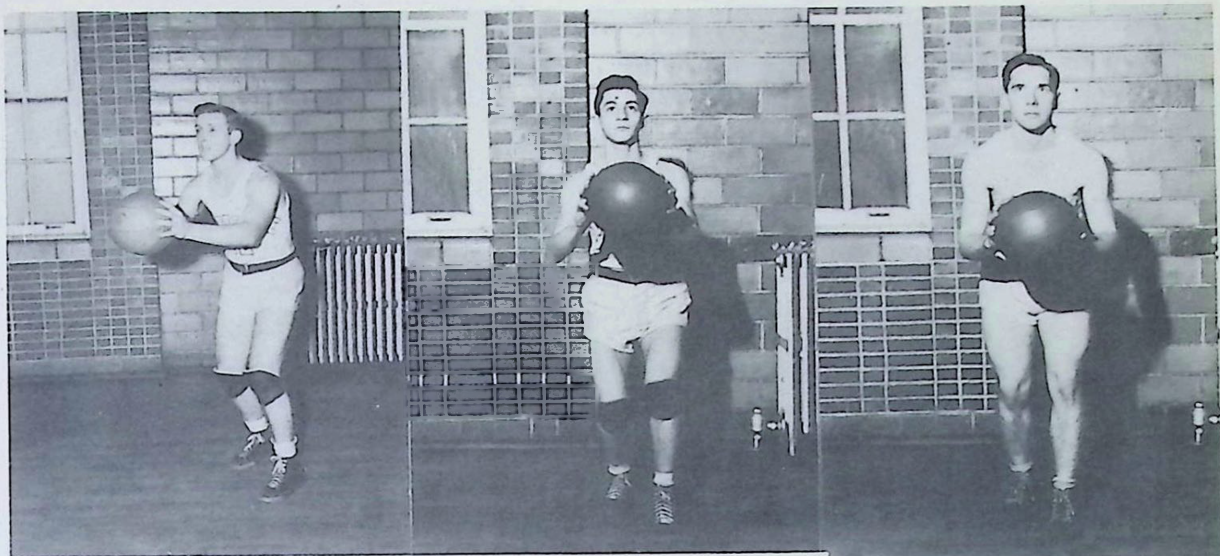

J. C. GEORGE—Jay was the tallest player on the squad, and much to his opponents' dismay he did an excellent job on the boards besides sinking many baskets which led the Scotties to many of their wins. A junior, J. C. will be back next year and should be one of the leading scorers on the team.

BOB PERCY—Bob was second-string forward of the Scottie five, playing varsity his first year. Bob will be back next year. He played Jayvee ball last year and is a dead eye on a one-hand push shot. Bob has height and should give his opponents a rough time under the hoop.

WINSTON DUNLEVY—Known to his teammates as "Wimpy," Dunlevy has shown promise of being a top-flight pivotman. "Wimp" was a sophomore this year and has two years of high school ball ahead of him. He is a southpaw and an excellent pivot shot. In his two remaining years he should give his opponents more trouble than they can handle.

JOHN NAWROCKI—This young player known as "Slim" to his teammates played on the Junior Varsity and substituted on varsity. He was a good man under the board, a fair shot, and cool in the most exciting moments of the game. He will be good material for varsity next year.

DICK KOVAL—Dick was one of the three seniors on the Scottie varsity this year. "Sleepy" was a dangerous man anywhere on the floor. Co-captain of last year's cage team he will be sorely missed next year for his height, speed, and shooting ability. He pulled many a game out of the fire for the Blue and White.

ANTHONY SABBERS—Although the smallest player on the team, "Ninnie" tamed his opponents by his clever ball-handling and his accurate shooting. Having two years of Jr. Hi experience, "Ninnie" played quite a bit this season and will be an outstanding basketballer his next two seasons.

HARRY MEHALICK—"Blocks" was a junior this year playing his second year on the varsity. He played Jr. Hi basketball the year Scottsdale took the Jr. Hi championship. "Blocks" plays guard; he is an excellent set shot and has a good one-hand push shot from the side. A strong man for next year's quintet.

BOB MYAL—Bob showed his basketball ability as a guard on the Scottie quintet. Bob is a fair set shot and a fine defensive player. His height helped the Scotties out in many a close game. Bob is one of the three seniors that won't be back next year, and his height and defensive ability will be sorely missed by next year's squad.

JIM EICHER—Called "Cherokee" by his teammates, Jim saw a great deal of action as second-string guard this year. Jim, a junior, was a fair defensive man and with the valuable experience gained this year should be an asset to the team next season.

CHEERLEADERS

To the beat of the drums, Scottsdale High's six cheerleaders made a smart appearance at all games, marching in the vanguard of the Scottie band.

They put forth their best efforts throughout the season, introducing new cheers and keeping the student rooters in the spirit of the game.

Veterans were Loretta Mitrison, Lois Tallentire, Dorothy Kozel, and Patti Harding. Newcomers were Ruth March and Doris Curry. All underclassmen, they will be back in full array next year and add pep to Scottie gridiron and basketball events.

ALPHA TRI-HI-Y

First Row: Kathleen Craig, Yvonne Sleasman, Joanne Bryan, Mary Ann Clark, Alice Hafer, Ruth March, Mary Lou Lowry, Mary Jane Uber.

Third Row: Dorothy Snyder, Mary Ann Rolko, Norma Jean Hall, Marjorie Loetzbeier, Alice Jordan, June Bandemer, Grace Uber, Dorothy Sknerski.

Fourth Row: Margery Thomas, Fay Weaver, Martha Eicher, Jean Ulickney, Marjorie Walter, Sally Eckman, Gladys Dunlevy, Stella Helkowski.

Fifth Row: Joan Reagan, Eileen Szczygiel, Mary Ellen Ryan, Matilda Kruckvich, Leona Valentovich, Marjorie Bradley.

Alpha began an eventful year by adding twenty-five new members who were welcomed by a hilarious initiation and a banquet in their honor. The year was filled with such events as the football banquet, trimming of the school Christmas tree, Friday night dances, and presentation of pins to the senior members.

Our officers, who have proved very capable, were: president, Marjorie Walter; vice president, Sally Eckman; secretary, Marjorie Loetzbeier; and treasurer, Jean Clelland.

Fifth Row: Barbara Koval, Dorothy Rizza, Peggy Ryan, Vera Bashforth, Nancy Doud, Betty Grimm.

Beta Tri-Hi-Y has just completed another successful year. Never an idle moment in this club. After undergoing a most trying initiation, twelve girls were received as members.

During football season we had a covered-dish dinner at which Mr. Keibler gave members tips on football. The second annual Thanksgiving formal was a gala event with sophisticated gowns and severe hair-dos. Other activities included Y dances, hikes, Christmas caroling and parties. A hayride marked the final jollification of the year.

Our officers were: president, Peggy Ryan; vice presidents, Nancy Fox and Sally Mulroy; secretary, Janet Kennel; and treasurer, Anna Mae Herrington. Mrs. Maloy, Mrs. Fisher, and Mrs. Robertson were our sponsors.

Hi-Y has experienced an exciting as well as profitable year. Beginning with an energetic membership campaign in September, the boys worked hard to make the year a success. Interesting programs were planned by the Executive Council.

The Club's calendar was filled with many social events, most important of which were the Joe College Hop and the Sadie Hawkins Dance. A red-letter occasion of the year was the induction service conducted for the East Huntingdon boys who were organizing for the first time.

Officers of the year were: Bob Merritt, president; Dick Blackburn, vice president; and Tom Loetzbeier, secretary-treasurer. Rev. Iliff was the club sponsor.

Fifth Row: Dolores Wolak, Barbara Koval, Jane Ulickney, Sally Eckman, Marjorie Loetzbeier.

One of the most worthwhile student activity groups is that of the two-year-old G.A.A. with its twenty-six girl membership. Having as its aims healthful recreation and physical development, the lively group had a crowded program which included basketball, mushball, volleyball, archery, tennis, and swimming. For every holiday there was a social event, all of which were successful.

The girls met every Thursday evening from five to seven at the Y. Membership was confined to girls who had a B in physical education and health.

Club officers were: president, Marjorie Walter; vice president, Josephine Sabbers; secretary, Anna Mae Herrington; treasurer, Barbara Koval. The faculty sponsor was Miss Frye.

G.A.A. HIGHLIGHTS

JUNIOR RED CROSS

First Row: Jane Hernley, Genevieve Chiaramonte, Miss Sherrick, Catherine Renner, June Christner, Margaret Cowan.
Second Row: Sally Eckman, Dorothy Sknerski, Peggy Ryan, Marjorie Loetzbeier.

One of the most helpful organizations in the high school was the Junior Red Cross sponsored by Miss Sherrick. A successful roll call resulted in the enrollment of two-hundred-and-four pupils.

In November, gift boxes were packed for needy children. A contribution was made to the National Children's Fund, and with the help of Miss Davis's sewing class, skirts were made for poor children. The organization also bought a pair of crutches to be left at the Red Cross headquarters for future use by any citizen of Scottdale.

Officers for the year were: president, Sally Eckman; vice president, Peggy Ryan; secretary-treasurer, Mary Ann Kostelnock.

RIFLE CLUB

First Row: Blair Loffer, James Earnesty, Nick Battle, Tom Kruckvich.

Second Row: Richard Quaile, Ed Bolosky, John Holland, Mr. Brady.

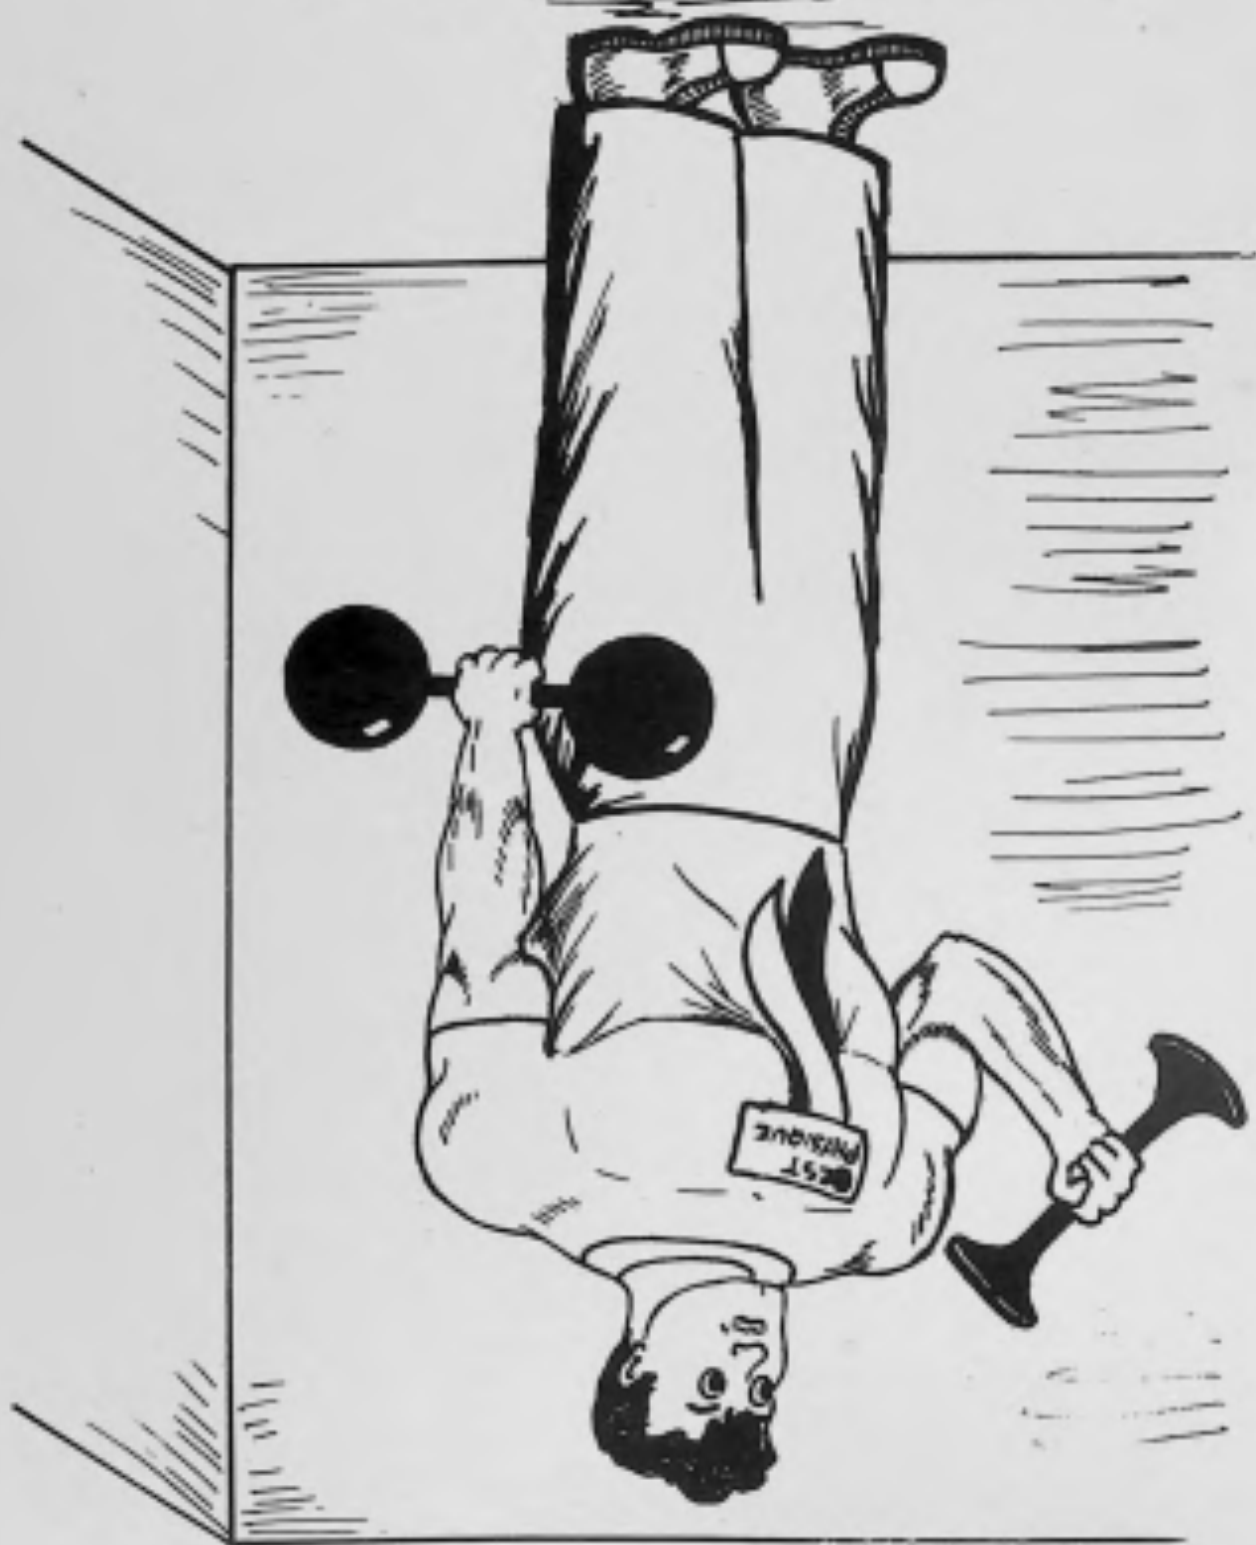

Third Row: Bill Shaffer, Bill Helenski, Leo Stempniak, Marion Firlik, James Finnerty.

The Scottsdale Junior Rifle Club started its second year with practice at the Armory. The size of the Armory range made it necessary to select three teams, with each team practicing on a different day. The club has entered a national rifle meet but is willing to take on all opponents. As yet there have been no outside matches. Although the Rifle Club has not been able to get a sponsor, it has made much progress under the excellent leadership of Mr. Brady.

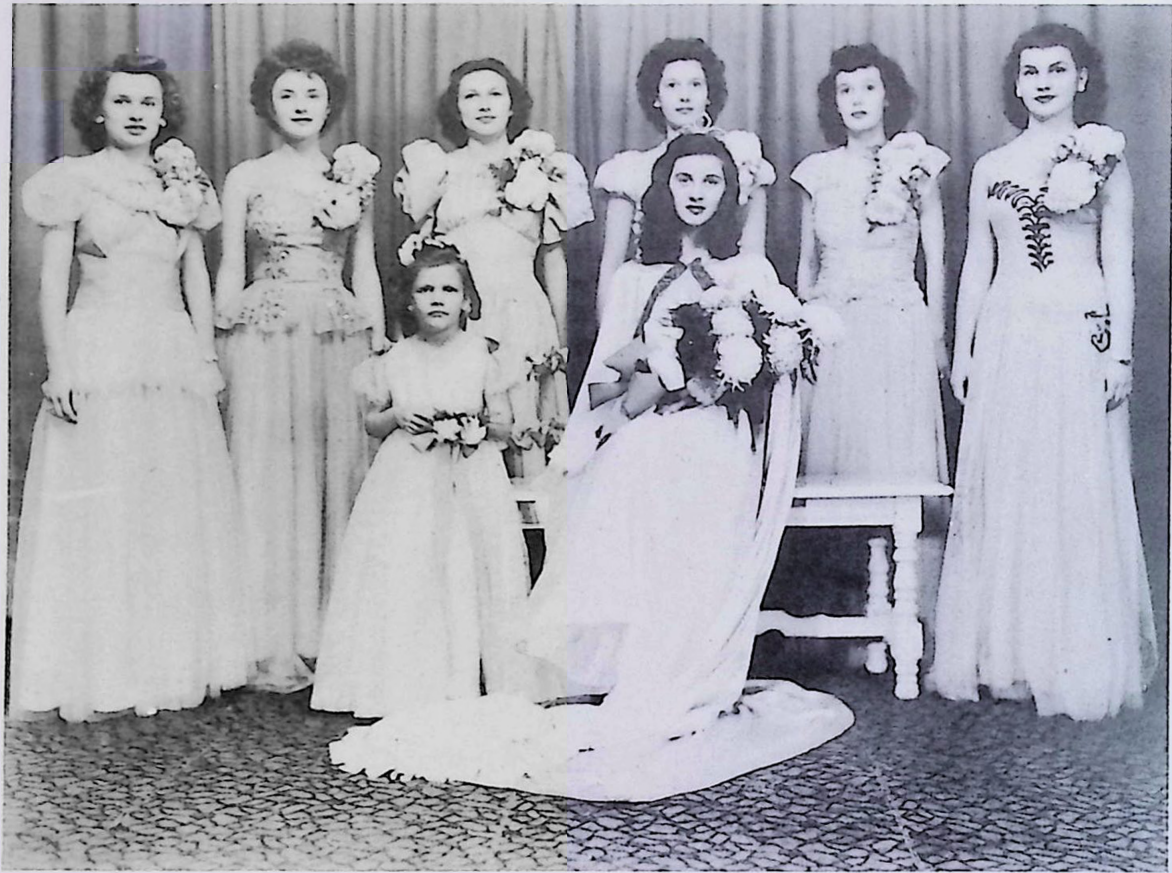

The following officers served faithfully throughout the year: Richard Quaile, president; Tom Kruckvich, vice president; Bill Bair, secretary; James Finnerty, treasurer; Bill Shaffer, field executive.

FEATURES

THE GRIDIRON QUEEN

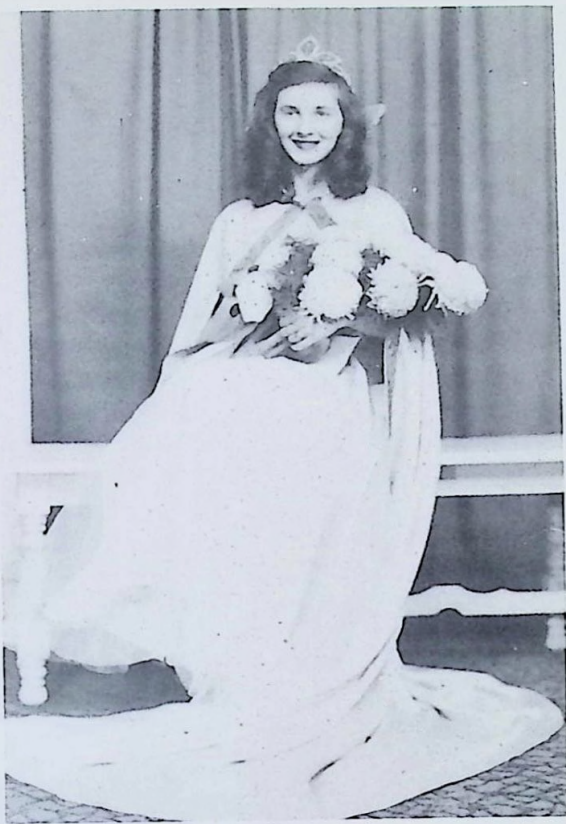

Seated: Gridiron Queen, Joan McFadden

Standing: Crownbearer, Carol Heise; Attendants, Theresa Jakamonis, Lucille Keister, Helen Zimmerman, Betty Grimm, Lois Nicklow, Maree Baughman.

The Scottdale-East Huntingdon football game was the scene of the traditional crowning of the Gridiron Queen of Scottdale High School. Joan McFadden, chosen by her fellow students because of her school spirit, was attended by Theresa Jakamonis, Maree Baughman, Betty Grimm, Helen Zimmerman, Lucille Keister, and Lois Nicklow. Little Carol Heise, 1946 Scottie band mascot, was crownbearer.

The coronation ceremony was simple. The band played a fanfare and procession as the royal party walked to the center of the field. A spotlight played on the gorgeous pageantry of the coronation event as Co-captain Mitrison placed the crown on Queen Joan's head. Following the game, she opened the Coronation Ball and reigned supreme for the evening.

Another Queen takes her place in the galaxy of lovely girls who have participated in these annual eagerly-anticipated events.

- 23—Senior Assembly. Futures are foretold, wills are read. It won't be long now!
- 25—Seniors in dignified procession at Baccalaureate.
- 29—The "Great Day." We graduate. Diplomas, smiles, farewells.

JUNE

- 3—Whoops! My lambkins! We gambol on the green. School picnic, you know!

NOON DAY DANCE

"Why Does It Get So Late So Early?" could easily have been the theme song of our Noon Time Dances, in the prime of their second year. "Zip-A-Dee-Doo-Dah, my, oh, my, what a wonderful Wednesday" every "Ugly Child" would sing as he entered the school at 12:10 and start to dance to "Ole Buttermilk Sky" wishing that school wouldn't take up "Till the End of Time."

The student committee for these dances consisted of Chubby Collins, Margie Robertson, Sally Mulroy, Dick Malone, Bill Slaughter, and Lois Nicklow. Miss Frye and Mrs. Maloy were the sponsors.

CLASS SONG

WE'VE NEVER FORGOTTEN

WE'VE NEVER FORGOTTEN
THE HAPPIEST DAYS OF OUR LIVES,
AND NOW THAT WE'RE LEAVING
THEY'RE BETTER THAN WE REALIZED.
THE BOOKS THAT WE STUDIED,
THE TEACHERS WE KNEW,
THE FRIENDS THAT WE HOLD DEAR,
WE WILL KEEP IN OUR MEMORY.

WE'VE NEVER FORGOTTEN THE TEACHERS
WHO GAVE US THE TESTS,
AND NOW THAT WE'RE LEAVING
WE KNOW THAT THEY ARE THE BEST.
THE FUN THAT WE HAD HERE
WILL LONG BE REMEMBERED.
WE'VE NEVER FORGOTTEN!
OUR CHERISHED MEMORIES!

(TUNE: "I'VE NEVER FORGOTTEN")

THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE CLASS OF 1947

We the Class of 1947 of the Scottdale High School, Scottdale, Westmoreland County, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, being of unsound mind and memory do hereby make and publish our last will and testament before our unwilling departure from the aforementioned institution. BOND ISSUE

OUR DREAM HIGH SCHOOL

On Election Day, November 4, 1946, the voters of Scottsdale approved a bond issue of $130,000 for a new high school. Both teachers and students were very happy for they had been working for weeks to convince the community that it was time that Scottsdale do something about its horse-and-buggy high school. No gym, no auditorium, no vocational courses—we talked ourselves hoarse on what we didn't have—and what we would like to have.

Although the Class of 1947 will not personally enjoy the benefits of a new high school, we were glad to help sell the idea to the community. That is one school experience we shall never forget.

The high mark of fine class jewelry

Like your own class, generations of graduates have confidently chosen graduation rings bearing the D & C mark of high quality. Since 1898 such rings have been proudly worn by the members of thousands of classes, assured by our "made right" guarantee that their rings exemplified the best in design, material, workmanship—and value. Look for the D & C mark on class and fraternity jewelry.
